Those Big Blue Eyes

THINGS were quiet and peaceful in Summerville that lazy spring afternoon when Dooley Jackson first took over the soda fountain in Mumford's Drug Store. Yes sir, he was going to be the best darn soda jerk that Mumford had ever seen, and, set up behind the gleaming counter in his white jacket and jaunty cap, he felt ready to face anything.

"Well, you look quite professional, Dooley," said Mr. Mumford coming over to the counter. "Take care of things for me, will you? I'll be gone about two hours. Er—you're sure you know how to work those gadgets at the fountain?"

"Oh, yes, sir," Dooley eagerly replied. "You don't have to worry about a thing . . . being a soda jerk is old stuff to me."

As Mr. Mumford's back disappeared out the door, Dooley remembered uneasily his first and only attempt at mixing sodas. It had been at Crush Johnson's birthday party, where Dooley had met his one and only heart throb, Celia Wilks. It seems he couldn't keep his mind on the mixing because of Celia's big blue eyes . . . and well, he shuddered when he thought of the gory results. There had been carbonated water all over Mrs. Johnson's new rug and Celia wouldn't speak to him to this day because he had dropped chocolate syrup all over her new dress. He sighed and leaned both elbows on the counter.

Dooley was so absorbed in his thoughts that he didn't even see Crush Johnson look in the drugstore window and run off down the street to round up the gang and Celia Wilks, Crush's particular gal. A little later the crowd of teen-agers burst in the door, and pounded on the counter.

"Wake up, drizzlepuss. We want service!" bel-lowed Crush.

"Yeah, whip up some super-duper concoctions . . . you know, your specialty," shouted another one of the bunch and everyone laughed. Everyone, that is, except Dooley. For he was looking smack into the eyes of Celia.

"Hello, Dooley boy," she cooed. "Won't you make me a chocolate sundae with coconut and whipped cream on top?"

"Er . . . whipped sundae, chocolate coconut . . . coming right up, Celia." He whirled into action. Now, let's see, what would he put it in? Oh, those blue eyes . . . ah, a glass. Now first the ice cream . . . with a flourish, he popped a scoop into a tall glass.

"This is the funniest thing I've ever seen," Crush whispered to the brawny boy next to him. "Dooley is so off his rocker over Celia that he'll mess things up and get fired and I'll be even with him for the trouble he caused at my party. I told Celia to wiggle her eyelashes at him for me . . . this is a panic."

By that time Dooley had poured chocolate sauce over the ice cream in the glass and was putting what he thought was coconut bits over the concoction. But his mind was so full of Celia that his hand reached for the headache powder dispenser instead. The counter was littered with dribbles of ice cream, spoons full of chocolate sauce and grains of the headache powder. Once in a while Dooley would look up from his labor and find Celia staring at him. Overwhelmed he'd dive back into the preparations. When it was finally finished, he placed it before her, knocking a chocolate covered spoon off the counter because his hands were shaking so.

"Oh!" squeaked Celia jumping off her stool. There was a trail of chocolate down the front of her dress.

Overcome, Dooley tried to fix things. "Wait, Celia," he said, reaching for the water faucet, "maybe I can clean it up for you." Turning the tap, he put his finger under it.

"Dooley! Stop! You're drenching me!" Celia's cry made Dooley look up. His finger under the tap had squirted the water right at her, and the force of it had washed away the chocolate. "Oh Celia, I'm such a drip."

"C'mon, Celia, let's get out of this dump," called Crush heading for the door with the gang following.

"You go ahead, Crush. I'm going to stay and help Dooley clean up this mess . . . after all, it really was my fault."

Then before Dooley knew what was happening, Celia had snatched the soda fountain rag from his hand and was busily mopping up the puddle of water on the floor. "G-gosh," he stammered.

In a few minutes the fountain was as clean and sparkling as it had been when Dooley had first stepped behind it, but now it was decorated by the shapely form of Celia about to dig into the huge sundae in the soda glass before her. Something clicked in Dooley's mind . . . had he put coconut on top?

"Wait a minute, Celia . . ." and he grabbed the glass and dumped the contents into the sink. In a twinkling he had whipped up a professionally constructed sundae which he placed before her. Oh, those blue eyes . . . now they really inspired him. And when Mr. Mumford returned he found Dooley, elbows on the counter in front of Celia who had just finished the sundae.

I Can Make YOU a New Man, Too, In Only 15 Minutes a Day!

CHARLES ATLAS
Holder of title,
"The World's Most Perfectly
Developed Man."

PEOPLE used to laugh at my skinny 97-pound body. I was ashamed to strip for sports or for a swim. Girls made fun of me behind my back. THEN I discovered my body-building system, "Dynamic Tension." It made me such a complete specimen of manhood that I hold the title, "The World's Most Perfectly Developed Man."

What's My Secret?

When you look in the mirror and see a healthy, husky, fellow smiling back at you — then you'll be astonished at how fast "Dynamic Tension" GETS RESULTS! It is the easy, NATURAL method and you can practice in the privacy of your own room — JUST 15 MINUTES EACH DAY. Just watch your scrawny chest and shoulder muscles begin to swell... those spindly arms and legs of yours bulge... and your whole body starts to feel "alive," full of zip and go!

Thousands are becoming husky — my way I give you no gadgets to fool with. With "Dynamic Tension" you simply utilize the dormant muscle-power in your own body — watch it grow and multiply into real, solid LIVE MUSCLE.
